

Meet one of our nurses, Sheila!

Name: Sheila Racheal Daniel

Role: Staff Nurse

What do you love most about being a Staff Nurse at Fairlie Healthcare?

The team work at Fairlie Healthcare stands out most. I really enjoy being part of such a hard working team.

Why did you choose to work as a Nurse within a specialist neurological service?

Having worked at Fairlie Healthcare for over 10 years, I became part of the family; it's like a second home to me. Patients with neurological problems need important attention and effective care and this is what Fairlie Healthcare is known for. Working as a nurse amongst other well-trained, efficient nurses has supported my development and built my confidence in my role.

What specialist clinical training opportunities have been available to you since you started in your role?

I have been lucky enough to receive many different training opportunities; medicine management, Health and Safety, Infection Control, Information Governance, SAVO, Moving and Handling, PEG Care, Tracheostomy care, the list goes on.

How has Fairlie Healthcare helped you to build and develop within your role as a Nurse?

The ability to work alongside other qualified nurses has really improved and built my confidence.

What do you find the most rewarding about being a Nurse at Fairlie Healthcare?

Fairlie Healthcare really look after their staff by providing regular training, competitive pay and supporting their workers. Fairlie Healthcare put patients at the heart of their service and it so rewarding knowing I am delivering excellent care to patients every day.

What would you say are the best three things about working as a Nurse for Fairlie Healthcare?

I really appreciate the great team work and support from the management. I think the third best thing is the flexible working hours that allows you to build a successful career and achieve a healthy work -life balance.

What would you say are the top three skills that someone needs to work in your role?

- 1) Compassion
- 2) Communication
- 3) Courage

How would you describe the culture within the home that you work in?

Great family culture, positive minds, promoting quality patient care.

Would you recommend Fairlie Healthcare as a great place to work, and if so why?

Yes, because it is a home away from home, Fairlie Healthcare is where you are welcome and treated as family.